

SOCIAL EVENTS

MRS. PENNYBACKER AT ILLINOIS THEATRE.

In order to accommodate the crowd that will attend the meeting of the Rock Island Woman's club next Saturday, when Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker, president of the General Federation of Women's clubs, will be the guest, the place of meeting has been changed from the Masonic temple to the Illinois theatre. Members of the Woman's club of East Moline, Silvis, Moline, Davenport and clubs in the district have been invited to be the guests of the local club on the occasion of Mrs. Pennybacker's visit and a very large gathering is expected. This is the first visit of Mrs. Pennybacker to this city, and in fact this locality, and club women are anxious to avail themselves of the opportunity of hearing her. She is a woman of most attractive personality and an orator of no mean ability.

VILLA ALUMNAE IN SOCIAL GATHERING.

The tri-city chapter of the Villa Alumnae, which was organized Oct. 19 at a meeting held in the home of Miss Elizabeth McHenry, was entertained last evening by Miss McHenry and Miss Elizabeth Maucker at the home of the latter, 744 Seventeenth street. The meeting was largely attended and the young women spent a delightful evening in a social way following a brief business session. The game of 500 was a diversion and favor fell to Mrs. Robert Ryan. Luncheon was served before the close of the evening, and the chapter was invited to meet Dec. 7 with the Misses Ursula and Kathleen Looney, Sixteenth avenue and Twentieth street. The chapter was organized with a membership of 45 and meetings will be held once a month in the homes of members for social intercourse.

COLLEGIATE ALUMNAE FRIDAY.

The Illinois-Iowa branch of the Association of Collegiate Alumnae will meet this week, Friday afternoon instead of Saturday, and the meeting will be held at 3:30 o'clock instead of 3 o'clock to accommodate the teacher members. The meeting will be held with Mrs. W. H. Kimball in Davenport, at which time Dr. Phoebe Pearson will give a talk, as scheduled in the year book. The change in the day has been made on account of the meeting of the Rock Island Woman's club Saturday, to which the Woman's club of the tri-cities and community have been invited to meet Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker, president of the General Federation of Women's clubs, with which all of the clubs of the tri-cities are affiliated. Collegiate Alumnae.

HEART and HOME PROBLEMS

MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) I am 18 years old and in love with a young man 24 years old. He is a friend of our family and I have gone with him every summer since I was 14. He was away at college during the winter time. He finished when he was 22, stayed at home during the summer and then went to another town to work. He was very much in love with me all that time and wrote to me often and sent me very nice presents while he was away. I loved him very much, too, and I would not go with any other boy because he didn't want me to, and he didn't go with any other girl for two months he hasn't written to me at all and for at least two more than that he hardly wrote. We were not engaged, but it seems to me that I have a claim on him anyway.

His mother came to call on my mother a few days ago and she told us that her son was very much infatuated with a girl in the town where he is now. She is 23, very good looking and has a lot of money, his mother says. What can I do? I cannot give him up. A few days ago I have given up going with other boys I think he has no right to drop me that way. What do you think?

BROKEN-HEARTED SUE.

I think you will have to give him up. You cannot force love. You are very young and will have a chance to go with other boys and fall in love again. Take this disappointment as cheerfully as you can and you will get over it much quicker than you would by giving up to grief and a broken heart.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am 17 years old and I go to high school. One of the high school boys has asked me to go to a school dance with him, and I want to go very much, but my mother does not think I ought to go because she has never met him. Would it be all right for me to ask him to call some night? I have already accepted his invitation because I did not know how mother would feel. The party is not right away and he will have a good chance to come to see me. I don't want him to think that I am running after him and that is why I would rather not ask him. Mother says that if he cannot come she will ask one of ly lighted rooms where ghosts showed them their way to the attic, which was spooky in its Halloween attire. Owls, cats, pumpkins, skeletons and witch faces were hid in bowers of leaves and cat tails which almost entirely covered the attic beams. Festoons of orange and black hung from the chimney to the rafters, forming booths under which cornstalks, large pumpkins, rosy apples and nuts were stacked. The hard time costumes and grotesque faces of arch gnomes furnished much merriment and after unmasking all sorts of Halloween games were enjoyed. In a contest Louis Hulsbrink won.

ST. ELIZABETH'S GUILD ELECTS OFFICERS.

St. Elizabeth's guild of Trinity Episcopal church met for the annual election of officers last evening in the parish house, the following being selected for the ensuing year:

President—Miss Mary Carter.
Vice President—Miss Dorothy Chamberlin.
Secretary—Miss Eleanor Tremann.
Treasurer—Miss Grace Carter.

MISSION SOCIETY WITH MRS. STURGEON.

Members of the Woman's Home Mission society of the First Methodist church were entertained last evening in the home of Mrs. N. M. Sturgeon, 1943 Nineteenth street, at the monthly session. The president, Mrs. W. A. Darling, presided at the meeting and Miss Louise Leverich conducted the devotional services. The visiting and membership committees that have served during the month of October were continued through November. A committee to arrange the calendar program for the year was appointed with Mrs. H. B. Brown as chairman and Mrs. O. T. Dwinell, Mrs. W. H. Dickman, Misses Pearl and Mary Snyder as the other members. Mrs. Carrie Lewis was made chairman of the flower committee. The annual thank offering service held last Sunday when Miss Carrie Barge delivered the address, brought in $47.90 for missions. The program last evening was in charge of Mrs. Grace Freeman, opening with responsive reading, "The Social Force of Christian Missions," led by Mrs. Darling. A victrola selection, "Pass It On," as sung by Gypsy Smith, was given, a reading, "Chair Caning," was given by Miss Alice Thompson and another victrola selection, "Kept for Jesus," was played as sung by Gypsy Smith. Mrs. Freeman closed with a paper, "Workers Together With Him." During a time of sociability refreshments were served.

O. E. S. WITH MRS. CAMERON.

A largely attended meeting of the O. E. S. Sewing circle was held yesterday afternoon with Mrs. Earl Cameron, 4420 Eighth avenue as the hostess. The ladies spent the time sewing and in the enjoyment of musical numbers, their hostess serving them with a delicious lunch. The next meeting will be with Mrs. C. J. F. Rochow, 1612 Twenty-second street.

ENTERTAIN AT HALLOWEEN PARTY.

The Misses Hazel Spaulding and Lily Elbl last evening entertained at a merry Halloween party in the home of the former, 2935 Eleventh and a-half avenue. Forty young people in the teachers about the boy's reputation. Do you think that would be foolish? He is one of the nicest boys at school and so I am sure the teacher can only say good things about him.

SCHOOL GIRL.

Boys do not feel that it is necessary to call on a girl before taking her somewhere. I think it would be a good plan for your mother to talk to the teacher about the boy and then you would not have to ask him to call until after the dance. Of course, you should then show him that he is welcome at your home. This would give him no occasion to think you are running after him.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: A girl friend of mine introduced me to a boy and he seemed to like me a little. He wasn't crazy about me, but he liked me well enough to take me to a picnic afterward. Then I didn't hear a word from him for over a month. He just phoned again and asked to take me to the show and said that my girl friend and another boy were going. I had another date and I couldn't go with him and he said he would phone me again within the week to ask me about something else. Do you think he was rude because he left me for so long and that I shouldn't have anything more to do with him? I am 20 years old.

He hasn't been rude. A boy does not need to call on a girl every week to show that he is interested.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) I am a girl 17 years old. I met a very handsome man and have gone with him five months. Do you think I am too young to be married?

(2) My friend and I went out automobile riding one night and we got stuck. Do you think a girl should help a boy in such a position?

D. S.
(1) You are very much too young.
(2) Yes, if there is anything she can do.

turned from a three weeks' visit with Mrs. Ann Harwig in Muscatine. Clarence John Harwig, the 18-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Harwig took the first prize, a solid gold ring, for the most perfect baby in a baby contest conducted in Muscatine. The little fellow is splendidly formed and in perfect health and his parents are justly proud of him and his record.

COLONEL BRACKETT CIRCLE SESSION.

Colonel Brackett circle, Ladies of the G. A. R., met in regular session yesterday afternoon in Memorial hall in the court house. Plans were made at this time for the day of inspection next Monday, when the department president, Mrs. Alice Kaufman, will be present to conduct inspection. The Gettysburg and Wellington Wood circles of Moline have been invited to be in attendance at this meeting and a special effort is being made to get out the entire membership for the session. The circle will conduct a sale at the court house next Tuesday, when articles of various kinds will be offered.

MATINEE BRIDGE CLUB.

Mrs. R. J. Bennett at her home in Moline entertained the Matinee Bridge club members yesterday afternoon. The usual three tables of bridge were played, with the favors going to Mrs. Jericho and Mrs. A. C. Woodvatt. The games were followed by a luncheon served in the dining room, which was decorated with chrysanthemums. The club in two weeks will be entertained by Mrs. A. C. Croswell in Moline.

Y. B. C. CLUB ENTERTAINED.

Y. B. C. club members were entertained yesterday afternoon by Mrs. J. R. Nelson at her home, 3533 Twelfth avenue. Three tables of club were played, with the prizes going to Mrs. Lawrence Cederberg, Mrs. P. J. Carlson and Mrs. Ed Cederberg. Mrs. Nelson had triumphed her home attractively with fall asters. Following the games a lunch was served in the dining room. Mrs. P. J. Carlson will be the next hostess, entertaining in two weeks.

FORTNIGHTLY READING CIRCLE.

Fortnightly Reading circle members were entertained yesterday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Peter Benzon, 2922 Eighth avenue, for the regular study session. Mrs. C. L. Pedersen acted as the leader of the afternoon, a social hour followed the study when the hostess served a nice lunch. Mrs. E. T. Anderson, 3520 Seventh avenue, will act as the hostess in two weeks.

the Gentle Art of Growing Young

in a GOSSARD Corset

And it is a beautiful art. Motherhood, golf, riding, public service, the drama, opera and much reading contribute their share toward your growing young, but any of these things may fail if the body itself is not thoroughly sound and well.

Among the millions of Gossard wearers, are thousands who had never known perfect health until they were correctly fitted to the Gossard designed for their figure. These women had every advantage for preserving their youth, except one, they lacked our corset.

Today, their Gossard corsets are a part of them. Their well-poised, graceful bodies are the complement to their varied accomplishments. The years slip by leaving them happier and younger in spirit. They have found out how to grow young. Their friends and daughters also profit by their experience.

The youngest old women invariably wear Gossards. There is a model for your figure at $2.00, $3.50, $5.00 up. A fitting does not obligate you to buy. Why not be fitted tomorrow.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

THE TABLE.

Steamed Eggs—Butter small molds or tiny cups. Sprinkle each with chopped parsley. Break an egg into each and place in sauce pan with boiling water to come half way up. Put lid on pan and let eggs steam until set. Have toast hot and buttered and slip an egg carefully on each.

Baked Cabbage—Cabbage, cream sauce, bread crumbs, butter. Chop cabbage fine, boil to tenderness in hot water, salted. Drain and pour over cream sauce in a baking dish. Sprinkle bread crumbs over all and also dots of butter. Bake in oven about 15 minutes or until it is browned.

Pepper Salad—Peppers cut in rings with dull scissors. Mix with lettuce and French dressing.

Prune Tart—One pound of prunes soaked over night; two eggs, whites and yolks beaten separately; half teaspoonful baking powder, one teaspoonful sugar, half pound English walnuts chopped. Bake 25 minutes. Serve with whipped cream.

Devil's Food—Grate one-fourth cake of unsweetened chocolate in a bowl, add one-half cup of boiling water and a teaspoonful of soda and let stand until you get the following ready: Take two cups of sugar, one-half cup butter, two eggs, one-half cup sour milk and two and one-half cups of flour. Mix with chocolate and bake in layers. For frosting, take one cup of pulverized sugar, butter size of an egg, and cream. Flavor with vanilla.

"Hop-in-John" (southern dish)—Soak one pint red beans overnight; drain, cover with cold water and cook slowly. After two hours add half pound fat ham, a chopped sweet pepper, salt if needed and one pint rice. Cook two hours longer, or until all is tender and nearly dry. Serve on platter, bacon in the center.

Veal Loaf—Three pounds lean beef, one-half pound veal, six soda crackers, four teaspoons poultry seasoning, one teaspoon pepper, few drops of onion juice. Put meat through chopper and add other ingredients. Mix well and pack in bread pan. Smooth evenly on the top. Brush with white of egg. Bake slowly three hours, basting with one-fourth cup fat. Prick frequently while cooking.

Charlotte Russe—One-fourth box gelatin, one-half cup cold water, one teaspoon vanilla, whites of two eggs, speck of salt, one-half cup hot milk, four tablespoons of sugar, one cup of cream, two cups of whipped cream, four tablespoons powdered sugar. Soak gelatin in cold water one-half hour, add hot milk, vanilla and four tablespoons sugar. Stir until sugar is dissolved, add cream and put on ice. When it begins to stiffen beat with an egg beater until very light, then add the stiffly beaten whites of two eggs, to which the powdered sugar and salt has been added. Beat well and add whipped cream. Pour into wet mold lined with ladyfingers or sponge cake and put on the ice to stiffen.

Stuffed Egg Plant—Boil until soft one egg plant, make a dressing of one egg, two cups crumbs, one-half cup celery, one-half cup nuts, one-half cup cream, two tablespoons of butter, cut egg plant in half and scrape out center; separate seeds from pulp; add pulp to dressing and place all in the halves of the egg plant again. Bake for 30 minutes in buttered dish. Baste with milk.

Creamed Cauliflower—Two cups cooked cauliflower, two cups milk, one teaspoon salt, one-third teaspoon pepper, one tablespoon butter, one-half tablespoon flour. Break cauliflower into branches and season with half the salt and pepper. Put the butter in a saucepan. When hot, add the flour, stirring until smooth, then add the milk, stirring all the time; when sauce boils, add salt, pepper and cauliflower. Cook 10 minutes.

Le Blanc Whip—One can Hawaiian pineapple, one-quarter pound walnuts, one-quarter pound marshmallows, one-quarter pound candied cherries, and one pint double cream. Cut pineapple into small cubes, chop nuts, marshmallows and cherries rather fine and insert all into the cream beaten for 1 minute. Garnish with maraschino cherries.
